ALEXANDRIA AFFAIRS

Work Begun on Round House at Shops of Southern Railway.

NEW PASSENGER DEPOT IN PROSPECT

Alexandria County Court in Session at Fort Myer Heights.

GENERAL AND PERSONAL

Evening Star Bureau.
No. 701 King Street,
Bell Telephone No. 106.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., December 2, 1901.

The preliminary work of constructing a new round house at the shops of the Southern Railway Company, in the southwestern section of the city, has been commenced, and will be pushed to a rapid conclusion. It is stated that the structure will be one of the finest on the entire system. Alexandria being one of the terminal points of the road, a great many locomotives are changed here, and the need of a new and commodious roundhouse has been felt for some time. The building will have brick walls and the frame will be constructed of steel. As a part of the present waiting room and baggage department will have to be taken away to make room for the larger building. It is likely that the company will construct a new passenger depot. The one in present use has been the source of much complaint from citizens.

A rumor to the effect that the Southern Company and the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Company would construct a union depot at Alexandria, at the Duke and Payette streets, where the tracks of the two companies are close together, has received some credence here. The local officials, however, are not discussing the matter publicly.

On Trial for Assault.

The case of Samuel Thompson, colored, indicted for committing a criminal assault on Virgie Smith, a colored girl twelve years of age, was called before Judge J. M. Love of the Alexandria county court this morning. The hearing of the evidence had not been concluded when this report closed. Thompson was represented by Attorney Moncure and Machen. Acting Commonwealth Attorney James E. Clements conducted the prosecution.

The prisoner was arrested the latter part of October on a warrant sworn out by the father of the girl. He was taken before Magistrate William Moody and held by P. Birch, who committed him to jail to await the action of the grand jury. Thompson was indicted last Monday by a special grand jury.

Suit for Divorce.

Through his attorney, Charles Bendheim, Robert Bruce Milstead has filed a petition in the corporation court asking that his marriage to Estelle Yates be annulled, on the ground that at the time of his marriage to the defendant she had a husband living from whom she had not been divorced. The defendant was married to the plaintiff under her maiden name, Estelle Jackson. The couple first met at Colonial Beach last summer. It is said, and after brief courtship were married in King George county by the Rev. J. H. New. They returned to this city shortly thereafter, but soon separated. It is alleged, on account of domestic infidelity, the defendant returning to her former home in Washington. She was followed by the plaintiff to this city and attempted to get Mr. Milstead to live with her again. Being unsuccessful she produced a bottle, supposed to contain laudanum, but was prevented from partaking of the drug by a number of Mr. Milstead's friends. Subsequently she left and went to a nearby drug store and purchased more of the drug, and drank a portion of the contents of the bottle. Later she was conveyed to the Alexandria Infirmary. The morning following she was sufficiently well to leave that institution, and again left for her former home in Washington, where she is now supposed to reside.

General Matters.

Rev. Carroll Stanley Mason of Washington delivered an address yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock to an audience of men in the lecture room of the First Baptist Church. His theme was "True Success in Life," and his remarks were attentively listened to. The meeting was under the auspices of the Society for Aid of the Church. Mr. Mark Miller presided. A feature of the meeting was a solo by Mr. George Evans.

The High School foot ball team wound up the season Saturday afternoon with a victory over the Woodbury Forest School eleven, on the High School grounds, by a score of 34 to 0. At no time in the game were the visitors able to advance the ball, and the local players simply had a walkover.

The funeral of Edward D. Soper, whose death occurred Thursday, took place yesterday afternoon from the Methodist Protestant Church. The services were conducted by Rev. H. S. Ewell of the Methodist Protestant Church. Interment was made in Bethel cemetery.

Funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Rose V. Parker, whose death occurred last Friday at her home in Washington, took place this morning at 10 o'clock from St. Mary's Catholic Church. Rev. Father M. J. Ahern conducted the services and the interment was made in St. Mary's cemetery.

The circuit court for this city, Judge Charles E. Nicol presiding, was opened for the fall session here this morning. With the opening of the court a recess until after noon.

Rev. Dr. J. H. Boyd, pastor of the M. E. Church, called on the members of the M. E. Church at the Alexandria Infirmary for several weeks for treatment, is gradually regaining health. Dr. Boyd is able to be out of doors.

FIRST ACT OF THE KIND.

President Approves Death Sentence of a Soldier.

President Roosevelt has confirmed a sentence of death imposed by a general court-martial convened at Nueva Caceres, Philippine Islands, upon Private Daniel Healy, Company C, 27th Infantry, who was tried for and found guilty of murder. Healy was sentenced to be hanged. This is the first instance since Mr. Roosevelt entered upon his duties as President of the United States wherein a death sentence imposed upon an American soldier has been approved by him. In but one case did the late President McKinley sign the death warrant of a soldier of the United States—that of Phineas Fouts, an Ohio soldier, who murdered his Philippine sweetheart. This crime, it is said, was an exceptionally atrocious one. Even after the sentence of the court-martial, which tried Fouts had been confirmed by President McKinley, he was before his assassination, strong pressure was brought to bear to have it mitigated, and after Mr. Roosevelt assumed the office the case came up before him. But he decided to let the action of his predecessor in office stand as final. Meanwhile Fouts escaped from custody and the sentence has not been executed.

It is said at the War Department that Healy's crime was the shooting of a sergeant of his company while the latter was lying asleep.

A Muslim Tunnel.

Statuary hall will present a strange appearance to the members of the Fifty-seventh Congress. An arch or tunnel of white muslin has been constructed through the former place of meeting of the representatives. This passageway is the only accessible part of the hall. It is lighted with electricity and runs under the rotunda, a canvas entrance to a circus tent. This impression is accentuated on emerging into the big rotunda after passing through it.

The report that Florence Nightingale was near death is unfounded. Florence Nightingale is well.

ALONG THE RIVER FRONT

THE BARGE McNALLY SUNK IN ST. MARY'S RIVER.

Cargo of Fertilizer Lost — Fish and Oyster Market—Matters of General Interest.

The large barge Thomas McNally, a frequent visitor to this port, lies sunk in St. Mary's river near the mouth of the Potomac, with her decks awash. The McNally left Baltimore November 23, with a tow of barges bound for Petersburg, Va., and laden with fertilizer, but had to go into harbor on account of the heavy gales. She again started November 28, but in her tow next day, Capt. G. P. Seaward anchored her under Point-No-Point. It was afterward found she was leaking. The tug J. S. Hoskins came along and took the McNally in tow and beached her in the St. Mary's river. The fertilizer aboard the barge will be lost. The barge will be raised and taken to Baltimore.

The two-masted schooner Chase, which had her hull repaired at the Alexandria shipyard, was Saturday put overboard, all the leaks having been stopped. The schooner will be loaded on the wharf at the shipyard, will be reloaded and the schooner will be taken to St. Mary's wharf, on the lower Potomac, to complete loading. The schooner is owned by the Chesapeake Light House, and is being used for the lower Potomac light house for several days past, doing some repair work to the light house engine and boiler. The schooner was completed the work and returned to her station at Baltimore.

Prices at the fish market, foot of 11th street, today are as follows: For small blue fish, 10c. to 8c. per pound; pan rock, 7c. to 9c. per bunch; medium rock, 11c. per pound; boiling rock, 12c. to 15c. per pound; Virginia blue, 10c. per bunch; green pike, 5c. to 8c. per pound; carp, 4c. to 5c. per pound; gray trout, 8c. per pound; salmon trout, 6c. to 7c. per bunch; sea bream, 15c. to 25c. per bunch; catfish, 15c. to 50c. per bunch; and yellow perch, 10c. to 40c. per bunch.

The fish market today was a very busy one. The fish were a little lower than last week. In consequence of the warm weather, the smaller oysters selling from 40c. to 50c. per bushel, the larger ones 70c. per bushel. The recent arrivals are the Seabell and J. A. Holland.

Passing To and Fro.

The schooner Grace G. Bennett has sailed from Newbern, N. C., for this port with a cargo of pine lumber.

The schooner Sidonia Curley has arrived in port with a cargo of about 120,000 feet of pine lumber from the Rappahannock river for H. L. Biscoe.

The steamer E. James Tull has arrived in port with a cargo of about 60,000 feet of Virginia pine lumber from Aquia creek for Church & Stephenson.

The tug Camilla has taken the barge Gen. Wistar to Ocoquan to complete the loading of the barge with the hard wood for Carter & Clark for shipment to Philadelphia.

The sloop Emmet Arthur has gone to the lower Potomac and will load a cargo for this port.

The Elenora Russell has returned to the lower river and will load a cargo of oysters for this market.

The barge Overbrook and Edward Fay are in port with loads of hard coal from Perryville, Md., for Stephenson & Bro.

The schooner Sidonia Curley has arrived in port with a cargo of about 120,000 feet of pine lumber from the Rappahannock river for H. L. Biscoe.

The tug Camilla has taken the barge Gen. Wistar to Ocoquan to complete the loading of the barge with the hard wood for Carter & Clark for shipment to Philadelphia.

The sloop Emmet Arthur has gone to the lower Potomac and will load a cargo for this port.

Matters of General Interest.

The hull of the little steam launch Della is at Moore's machine shop dock at Alexandria and will, it is stated, be overhauled and have an engine planned in her for parties living here.

It is stated the tug Joe Kane, now laid up in the basin near the bathing beach, is to be given a thorough overhauling and will be placed in commission by her owners, the Columbia Sand and Dredging Company, in the early spring.

The steamer Harry Randall, on her last trip up from lower river points, brought about 800 bushels of grain and 50 barrels of oysters to Alexandria, and will load a cargo of oysters to this city.

The three-masted schooner Hattie E. Giles, which was Saturday beached on Saturday at the Rappahannock river, where she will load lumber, has been launched and sailed for the lower Potomac.

The steamer yacht Garvota belonging to Mr. John R. Dos Passos has returned to the lower Potomac.

SOUSA PLAYS TO ROYALTY.

Famous Band Leader Entertains British King at Sandringham.

A dispatch from London last night says: Sousa and his band played by royal command tonight at Sandringham before their majesties King Edward and Queen Alexandra and the royal family. The concert lasted two hours. At its close Mr. Sousa was presented to King Edward, who received him very graciously. The king displayed keen delight in the music. All arrangements were made for the convenience of Mr. Sousa's party. Dinner was served on board the train going to Sandringham and supper on the train returning to London.

It is particularly noticeable that King Edward has chosen an American band as the second company of artists to appear before his court since his accession to the throne.

The band played on the occasion of the first birthday of Queen Alexandra since the accession of King Edward. The family gathering included the Prince and Princess of Wales.

Maud Reese Davis and Dorothy Hoyle arrived at Sandringham at 6 o'clock in the evening and performed after dinner. The program included classical and sacred music, and a particular feature was a selection of American hymn tunes, for which an extensive pool of bells had been especially brought from London.

Mrs. Sousa was also present.

King Edward presented the bandmaster with a royal Victoria medal in appreciation of his services to music. The Prince of Wales personally affixed the decoration to Sousa's breast. In describing the artist, Sousa said to a representative of the Associated Press:

"It was among the most gratifying experiences of my life. The royal command was received several days prior to the visit, but was kept strict secret, the king desiring to give the queen a birthday surprise. Considerable duplicity was necessary to complete the arrangements without divulging our destination. We took Mr. Alfred D. Rothschild into our confidence and gave out that we were going to play at his country seat on Sunday. It was only when we were trained that the band was informed whither we were bent."

Anarchist Pleads Irresponsibility.

A. H. Mueller was arrested Saturday evening at Broad and Chestnut streets, Philadelphia, charged with having declared that President Roosevelt should be served the same as was McKinley. He was held in $800 bail yesterday for court for disturbing the peace. At the hearing before Magistrate Kochersperger, at the city hall, Mueller had nothing to say beyond declaring that he was not responsible on Saturday for using the words imputed to him.

He stated that he had boarded several weeks at 1305 Vine street, and had previously been a machinist in Wilmington, Del.

Mueller was arrested on complaint of F. T. Tobin, who claimed to have heard him use the threatening language. Tobin said that the remark was made in the Hotel Lafayette, at the time the President was looking at the foot ball game in West Philadelphia.

Capt. Gilmore Reports for Duty.

Capt. John C. Gilmore, Jr., of the Coast Artillery, who has been on duty at Fort Totten, N. Y., has reported for duty as assistant to Colonel Simpson, in charge of the military information bureau of the War Department, where he will succeed to the important artillery work of that branch hitherto conducted by Capt. W. S. Overton, who now joins his command, the 80th Company of Coast Artillery.

Legislation Wanted by Shortland Reporters.

The committee on legislation of the National Shortland Reporters' Association is meeting at the Capitol in this city. Members of the committee in attendance on the meeting are Charles Carter Reide of Boston, chairman; Charles F. Roberts, New Haven, Conn., secretary; Edward W. Murphy of this city, Clayton C. Herr of Bloomington, Ill., and H. C. Demming of Harrisburg, Pa. The committee has been charged by the national association to form some legislation relating to the appointment of court reporters for United States courts. Members of the committee present at the meeting are the guests of Messrs. David Wolfe Brown, Fred Island, Daniel Smal and Edward W. Murphy of the congressional staff of shorthand reporters.
